

— The 6th Social Sciences Korean Studies European Network —
(SoKEN)

Korean Youth Abroad

Time

November 10-11
2023

Venue

Renate von Metzler Saal,
Casino Building 1.801
Goethe University Frankfurt

Registration link

<https://uni-frankfurt.zoom-x.de/meeting/register/u5ltd-mvrT0uG9B8jNWxEtmFnuB9SXwZiA8I>

Organiser: Korean Studies, Goethe University Frankfurt

Contact: Prof. Yonson Ahn (soken2023@gmail.com)

— The 6th Social Sciences Korean Studies European Network —

Day 1 November 10th 2023 (Friday)

10:00-10:20 Registration

10:20-10:50 Welcome remarks

Prof. Yonson Ahn (Korean Studies, Goethe University Frankfurt)

Mr. Byung-Kuk Woo, Director, Korea Foundation Berlin Office

11:00-12:30 Panel 1 Korean Youth in the Global South (1)

Chair: Ruixin Wei

1. Jihye Kim (University of Central Lancashire & Goethe University Frankfurt)

Ethnic Churches and Second-Generation Korean Brazilians in São Paulo

2. Jeong Taek Lim (University at Albany)

Ethnic Identity of Korean-Vietnamese Adolescents Living in Vietnam: A Qualitative Study with an Ecological Approach

3. Young Su Park (Seoul National University) Online

Of Two Velocities: Bifurcated Life Trajectories and Visions of Korean Aid Workers in Ethiopia

12:30-14:00 Lunch

14:00-15:30 Panel 2 Korean Youth in the Global South (2)

Chair: Lynne Soon-Chean Park

4. Jihye Son (Korea University)

A Comparative Study on the Language and Bicultural Identity of the Next Generation of Koreans in Brazil and Argentina

5. Ananya Mahir (Independent Researcher)

Role of Young Koreans in Shaping Korea's Image in India

6. Kyungmin Bae (University of the Philippines)

Return Migration to Where I was Not Born: Two Korean-Filipino Youth's Experience

16:00-17:30 Panel 3 Experiences of International Students

Chair: Bonnie Tilland

7. Jeehun Kim (Inha University)

Multiple Purpose/Journey Migration: Lived Experiences of Korean University Students and Recent Graduates in Singapore

8. Hyunah Cho (University of Leeds)

Musical Engagement and Subjective Wellbeing amongst Korean Students in the UK

9. Sung Un Gang (Technische Universität Berlin)

Breaking Boundaries: Queer Korean Youth and Their Experiences of Studying Abroad

Day 2 November 11th 2023 (Saturday)

10:00-10:50 Keynote Lecture

10. Sunhee Koo (University of Auckland)

Culture, Meaning, and Overseas Korean Youth Identity: A Research Prospectus for the Past and Future

11:00-12:00 Panel 4 New Generation Koreans

Chair: Jeehun Kim

11. Ruixin Wei (Goethe University Frankfurt)

The Ethnic Boundary-Making/Unmaking of Korean Chinese Youth in the Consumption of Korean Popular Culture

12. Lynne Soon-Chean Park (University of Auckland)

Otherness, Acculturation and Social Identity: A Qualitative Inquiry of the Emergence of Ethnic Identity among 1.5- and 2nd-generation Korean New Zealanders

12:00-13:30 Lunch

13:30-15:00 Panel 5 Culture, Soft Power and Korean Youth

Chair: Hyunah Cho

13. James Jungho An (Independent Researcher), Yoona Kim (KAIST),
Wonjae Choi (Seoul National University), Myunggu Jung (KAIST)

Changes in the Notion of Success Through Hip Hop Music of Young Korean-American Rappers

14. Bonnie Tilland (Leiden University)

King Sejong Institutes, Korean Teachers, and Soft Power

15. Carolyn Choi (Princeton University) Online

At the Intersection of Race and Global Nation-Building: English Language Travel,
Labor Market Segmentation, and Low-Wage Work among South Korean Working
Holidaymakers in Australia

15:30-17:00 Panel 6 Ethnic Entrepreneurship and Employment

Chair: Kyungmin Bae

16. Jingeum Lee (Goethe University Frankfurt)

Intercultural Business Communication in Korean Companies Near Frankfurt Am Main

17. Stephen Cho Suh (San Diego State University) and
Brian Woohyun Kim (Seoul National University) Online

Serving Diaspora in the Homeland: Korean American Culinary Entrepreneurs in Seoul's Food and Beverage Industry

18. Juhee Jeong (Heidelberg University) and
Xiaoying Jin (Heidelberg University) Online

The Contribution of Sending Country's Policy Initiative to Youth Mobility: Case Study of South Korea's Overseas Employment Support